Each speaker on the amendment, including the Secunder, shall not speak for more than 3 minutes.
15. No Delegates shall be allowed to introduce more than one amendment to any one motion or resolution.
16. If there is more than one amendment, the first amendment shall be disposed of before proceeding to the next one.

17. If in the process of disposal, any amendment is adopted by the Congress/Conference, there shall be no further discussion on the subsequent amendments provided such subsequent amendments are dissimilar to the one adopted and will not alter materially the amendment adopted earlier.
18. When one or more of the amendments have been accepted, discussion on the motion or resolution as a whole as amended shall resume and a vote taken, and if all amendments are defeated, discussion on the original motion or resolution shall resume and a vote taken.
19. A motion/resolution or an amendment may be withdrawn at the request of the mover at any time before the matter is fully put to Congress/Conference for discussion.
20. If the matter on an amendment to a motion/resolution or to another amendment has been put for discussion, the original motion/resolution or amendment shall not be withdrawn until the amendment thereto has been disposed of.

ORDER OF SPEAKERS

21. A Delegate desiring to speak shall raise his hand and if called upon by the Speaker, shall speak. If two or more Delegates raise their hands at the same time, the Speaker shall call upon the Delegate who catches his eye first to speak.
22. A Delegate who has spoken may speak again when a new matter is put for discussion by the Speaker, such as a proposed amendment.
23. A Delegate who has spoken on a matter may again be heard to offer explanation on some material part of his speech which has been misunderstood, but shall not introduce any new matter.
24. A Delegate shall confine his observation to the subject under discussion and shall not introduce any matter irrelevant thereto.

DEMOCRATIC ACTION PARTY

25. It shall be out of order to attempt to reconsider any specific question upon which the Congress/Conference has come to a conclusion during the current session.
26. It shall be out of order to use words which are offensive, insulting or uncomradely on members of the Party or any body duly constituted under the Party Constitution.
27. No Delegate/Observer shall impute improper motives to any other Delegate/Observer or member.
28. If the Speaker is of the opinion that any motion or amendment or the continuance of the debate thereon is calculated to give rise to breaches of this Order, he may disallow the motion or amendment or as the case may be, may terminate the debate and direct that no further proceedings be taken on the motion or amendment.
29. No Delegate shall interrupt another Delegate except:-
 - (a) By rising on a Point of Order, when the Delegate speaking shall resume his seat and the Delegate interrupting shall simply direct attention to the point which he desires to bring to notice and submit it to the Speaker for decision; or
 - (b) By rising on a Point of Clarification, provided that the Delegate speaking is willing to give way and resume his seat and that the Delegate wishing to interrupt is called by the Speaker.
30. Whenever the Delegates are called to order by the Speaker, or whenever the Speaker intervenes during a debate, any Delegate then speaking, or offering to speak, shall resume his seat, and the Congress/Conference shall be silent so that the Speaker may be heard without interruption.
31. Whilst the Congress/Conference is in session:-
 - (a) All Delegates/Observers shall enter, leave and behave in the Congress/Conference with decorum;
 - (b) No Delegate/Observer shall cross the floor of the Hall unnecessarily;
 - (c) Delegates and Observers shall not read newspapers,

- books, letters or other documents except such matters therein as may be directly connected with the business under debate;
- (d) No Delegates or Observers shall smoke in the Hall;
 - (e) While a Delegate is speaking, all other Delegates and Observers shall be silent and shall not make unnecessary interruptions;
 - (f) Taping of proceeding of the Congress/Conference by any Delegate or Observer is prohibited unless prior permission is obtained from the Speaker.
32. No Delegate/Observer when taking part in the proceedings of the Congress/Conference shall make any allegation against any member or any body duly constituted under the Party Constitution, which he is unable to substantiate with facts to the satisfaction of the Speaker.
33. The Speaker shall be responsible for the observance of the rules of order in the Congress/Conference Hall, and his decision on any Point of Order shall not be opened to appeal and shall not be reviewed by the Congress/Conference except upon a motion moved for that purpose. Such a motion shall be given in writing.

RULING BY SPEAKER

34. The Speaker, after having called the attention of the Congress/Conference to the conduct of a Delegate who persists in irrelevance, or in tedious repetition either of his own arguments or those used by other Delegates in debates, shall direct him to discontinue his speech.
35. Should the Speaker consider that there is no material difference of opinion on any matter among the Delegates, or the views expressed are repetitive, he shall have the power to stop the debate and put the matter to a vote.
36. Should any Delegate/Observer conduct himself in a grossly disorderly manner at any session of the Congress/Conference, or refuse to obey the Speaker when called to order, he shall be named by the Speaker and shall be ordered to leave the Hall for the remaining part of the session and shall not be allowed to enter the Hall without the consent of a simple majority of the Delegates. For the purpose of ensuring compliance with any order referred to herein before, the Speaker shall, if deemed necessary, take reasonable steps for the removal of such member from the Hall.

37. No Delegate or Observer shall leave the Congress/Conference Hall without obtaining prior permission from the Speaker.
38. In the case of grave disorder arising in the Congress/Conference Hall, the Speaker may, if he deems it necessary so to do, adjourn the Congress/Conference without putting any question or suspend the session for a time to be fixed by him.
39. Nothing in this Order shall be taken to deprive the Congress/Conference of the power of proceeding against any Delegate or Observer provided it is done in the form of a resolution of the Congress/Conference.

VOTING

40. Any matter put to the vote of the Congress/Conference shall be decided by a show of hands and in the case of an equality of votes, the matter shall be declared lost. Unless a ballot is so demanded, a declaration by the Speaker that the matter has, on a show of hands, been carried or lost shall be conclusive evidence of the fact.
41. A Delegate may demand for a ballot and the Speaker shall put the matter to a vote provided it has been seconded.
42. A demand for a ballot may be withdrawn before the matter is put to a vote.
43. Every Delegate at the Party National Congress shall be entitled to receive a list of names of all candidates seeking election to the Central Executive Committee.

44. Every Delegate present in the Hall at the time of the conduct of election to the Central Executive Committee shall be issued with a ballot paper and each Delegate shall vote 20 candidates for the election to the Central Executive Committee.
45. Any Delegate who votes for less or more than 20 candidates will have his ballot paper rejected.
46. In the case of a Party Special Congress called for the purpose of electing a new Central Executive Committee, Standing Order 43, 44 and 45 shall apply mutatis mutandis.
47. There shall be no voting by proxy.
48. Observers shall have no voting rights on any matter.
49. At the beginning of every session of the Congress/Conference, the Speaker shall appoint Tellers.

SUSPENSION OF STANDING ORDERS

50. The Congress/Conference Standing Order may be suspended as a whole or in parts thereof if such a suspension is agreed to by a simple majority of the votes cast by the Delegates present at the Congress/Conference.

GENERAL

51. The Deputy Speaker when deputizing for the Speaker shall be vested with all the powers of the Speaker.
52. The Speaker and the Deputy Speaker shall be addressed as “Comrade Speaker”.
53. The term “Delegate” shall include “Observer” if applicable.
54. This Standing Orders shall also be applicable to the Party Special Congress with the necessary adjustments.
